ELECTION WILL BE CALLED TO LET VOTERS FILL THE VACANT CITY CLERKSHIP

Choice of a city clerk to fill the unexpired term of the late C. H. Perry will be left to the voters of Sierra Madre. By failing to fill the vacancy at last night's meeting, the trustees passed up the responsibility without even taking a vote.

When the question was brought before the board by Chairman Dietz, Trustee Caskey said he thought it was a matter which ought to be left to the voters and made a motion for the calling of a special election. Chairman Dietz said if the board wished to take that action no motion was necessary, as the election must be called anyway if the vacancy runs thirty days. That period will expire on Feb. 17.

Nobody seemed to care to force the issue to an immediate appointment, and the city attorney was finally instructed to prepare an ordinance calling a special election. The ordinance will be introduced at the meeting of Feb. 22, which will bring the election some time early in April.

Applications for the vacant position from E. F. Ballou and T. M. Sherman were read and placed on file. The application of H. W. Timm was withdrawn, he having secured another position. The free-for-all election contest is expected to draw a number of other candidates, Mr. Dietz having announced his intention of running.

There was some discussion of the advisability of separating the work of accountant from the water department from the clerkship but no decision was reached.

Mr. Topping urged the appointment of Miss Grace Durland who had assisted Mr. Perry in the office. But Miss Durland who was present, said that while she would like employment under some one else she could not undertake the sole responsibility of either office.

Mr. Caskey also urged the segregation of the office of recorder to prevent interference with the work of the clerk. He urged the appointment of W. H. Stubbins who had filed an application. No action was taken.

More Trees Out

Removal of street trees was brought up once more, and half a dozen more were ordered out. These include all those on West Central, one on Grand View east of Sunnyside, one on Mountain Trail and one on East Central.

Complaint Tabled

A letter from H. C. Churchill requesting the trustees to take legal action against a sanitarium near his canyon ranch was tabled pending the outcome of a case filed in the recorder's court by Mr. Churchill.

License Ordinance

License Collector Steinberger said W. E. Farman had refused to pay the license of the Sierra Madre Electric Co., because the ordinance gave them no protection against outside contractors. The consensus of opinion was that strict application of the license ordinance against outsiders could not be effected without an ordinance requiring permits for all construction. The matter was referred to City Attorney Montgomery.

Demand Simpler System

A bill for clerical assistance for the water superintendent in bringing the famous Baskerville accounting system down to date caught Trustee Sperry's eye. He declared there was too much red tape to the system and the city could economize by cutting a lot of it out.

Supt. Biederman said the system was installed without any provision being made for the work required to keep it going. Some of it had never been started properly and he had merely been trying to bring all entries down to date so that it could be kept up with less labor. The system, which cost the city about $1500, was supposed to conform to the requirements of the state railroad commission.

The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee to investigate and see if any saving could be effected by simplification.

FORMER GOVERNOR TO ADDRESS OLD HAWKEYES

Iowa Picnic, Scheduled February 22, to be Greatest in History of Southern California

The executive committee of the Iowa Association of Southern California has in charge the plans for the great annual reunion of the Hawkeyes of all our Southland. The committee includes President Frank R. Willis, Secretary C. H. Parsons, Judge Fred H. Taft, Ed. W. Hopkins and Judge Curtis D. Wilbur. Among the speakers will be former Lieut. Governor Milliman, who is here for the winter. A new feature will be the singing of the Iowa song written by Major Byers. Thousands of copies will be distributed and led by Mr. H. J. Brubaker; all will unite in remembering old Iowa in this way.

The program will start at about 2 o'clock with President Willis in the chair. There will be the ninety-nine county headquarters and registers, the college reunion hour from three to four, and a special register for the "Boys who wore the blue." Every one should bring a big picnic dinner and ask friends to share it. From all over this Southland there will come Iowans eager to meet the old friends and to see who is here from the home town.

Every town and county in Iowa will be represented and many tourists who have been spending the winter in other parts of the state will come here for the occasion. The reunion will be held in Eastlake Park, February 22, and if rainy that date, as soon thereafter as there is a pleasant Saturday. This is an open invitation for all the Hawkeyes to rally for the day and to have the jolliest talkfest of the year.

As there are great numbers of Iowans here in Sierra Madre, there is always an interest in the reunions and many attend. It gives an opportunity for the Hawkeyes who are loyal to our city to tell of its advantages and to bring us new citizens.

ALPHA NU BENEFIT IS GREAT SUCCESS

The Ben Hur Lecture given Thursday night by Dr. James McLaren at the Woman's Club House for the benefit of the Alpha Nu class of the Congregational Sunday School was attended by an audience which filled the auditorium. The splendid success of the lecture was due to the work of the class teacher, Miss Larjar, who had charge and also the children who sold the tickets and Miss Helen Sadler who made the artistic posters that advertised the event.

175-Year Old Clock Started Through News Ad

Among the most highly prized possessions of the W. P. Caley family is a tall "grandfather" clock, 175 years old. This week it was put into running order after being out of commission for many years. Now the 13-pound weights are making their weekly downward journey, and the old clock is doing duty as well as ever.

And all through an ad in the Sierra Madre News. The clock was made in London in 1742. It was brought to America by a member of the Caley family and handed down through several generations until it came into the possession of W. P. Caley, in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1893.

Soon after the clock came into Mr. Caley's possession it was brought to California but had not been set up in order until recently.

Two weeks ago Frank Fraiberg inserted a little ad in the News, to let people know he would resume the jewelry business and make a specialty of repairing the movements of foreign-made timepieces. The ad suggested to Mr. Caley that Mr. Fraiberg would be a good man to start the old clock going again, and called him in to undertake the job.

On the inside of the dial Mr. Fraiberg found inscribed dates when the clock had been previously set up, the first being 1820. The next was 1826 and the last 1892. Mr. Fraiberg proudly added his name and the present year.

The old clock stands about eight feet high. The case is in brown, with dashes of cherry and yellow, and is covered with Japanese figures standing out in relief.

The dial is of brass, has a second hand as well as hour and minute hands, and shows the day of the month.

The big iron weights recall the origin of the expression "wind up" and "run down." When the clock is wound, the weights are carried to the top, and they will drive the clock for eight days before they reach the bottom.

After a rest of 24 years the old clock is probably as well convinced as Mr. Fraiberg that it pays to advertise.

ACTIVE WORK BY RED CROSS

In response to a telegram from Washington headquarters of the American Red Cross the Sierra Madre Chapter is arranging for work of the most active kind if necessity arises. The telegram follows:

Washington, Feb. 3.

Miss Edith Blumer, Secretary. In view of present events and possible developments, Central Committee desire each chapter immediately to make adequate preparation to carry out the work for which Red Cross is chartered by Congress.

Call meeting of executive committee at once. Make tentative arrangement capable of quick completion for roomy centrally located headquarters, rent free, and equipment for same. If not already active, appoint following committees: Finance, hospital, garment and surgical supplies, comfort bags, packing and shipping, publicity, and information, motor service. Appoint committee on co-operation with outside organizations which should begin work at once.

If not already done, appoint committees on education for information concerning courses of instruction for lay women. Inquire of bureau of nursing service. Refer graduate nurses to same bureau. Doctors volunteering for service should take first aid courses and the possibility of organizing sanitary training detachments should be taken up at once.

Present to public importance of large supporting membership and appoint special committee to conduct aggressive membership enrollment.

Detailed instructions will be sent as needs develop.

Central committee ask prompt acknowledgment by letter or telegram of these instructions, giving outline of your preparations. Call freely on headquarters for full co-operation. Central committee, realizing opportunity of service to country, bespeak every effort for complete and

POWELL URGES BOND SUPPORT

CITRUS EXPERT SAYS
FLOOD CONTROL MEANS
MUCH TO INDUSTRY

The following statement has been placed in the hands of the flood control publicity committee for publication:

It is an unfortunate fact that the great floods of Southern California, which come on an average of every two years, occur at just the time when the Washington Navel and other winter oranges are being packed and shipped to market. The tie-up of all railroads leading out of Southern California for the East, sometimes lasts for ten days to two weeks. All fruit in the packing houses at that time must wait, which means considerable deterioration for this highly perishable fruit. It means that all cars on track in California must wait until roadbeds are again in condition. This causes a serious derangement of marketing plans at a time when the market is generally in a most receptive condition. Following the tie-up there is a danger of too much fruit being rushed into market by all citrus shipping concerns.

Floods of the gravity of 1914, and even that of 1916, do not have to occur often to cost the citrus industry alone through lost opportunities in marketing, a sum approaching the whole amount of the proposed bond issue. I am not dwelling on the frightful loss to the rancher because of the washing away of his acreage, although I am painfully familiar with the amount of these losses. But I know that the complete loss of a part of the ranchers' holdings means the impoverishment of the remainder, for in the majority of cases a rancher who has suffered badly from storm damage finds himself crippled for funds with which to keep his ranch up to the proper producing efficiency.

I believe with all my strength that I would be remiss in my obligations to the citrus growers of this county, if I did not make as strong an expression as lies within my power in favor of the

RECORD CROWD ATTENDS DINNER AND SESSION OF CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE

With one of the largest crowds ever attending their sessions, the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Gabriel Valley met in the Woman's Club House Tuesday evening for their February meeting. About 175 men sat down to the dinner which was served by the ladies of the Woman's Club.

It was a delicious dinner, and the ladies responded nobly under the handicap of having twenty-five more to serve than the advance estimate. The fault, if there was any, lay with the Sierra Madre men who failed to buy their tickets in advance.

During the serving of the dinner there were some delightful entertainment numbers by home talent. The encores prolonged the preliminaries so the business session was late in starting and the adjournment consequently went beyond the ten o'clock limit.

Sustain the President

That the crowd was keyed up to the patriotic spirit of the times was shown at every opportunity. It was especially evident when J. L. Matthews of Covina moved the adoption of a resolution of support to President Wilson. The action was taken with enthusiasm. The telegram as sent follows:

To Your Excellency, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States; Greeting:

"The Associated Chambers of Commerce of the San Gabriel Valley, representing 75,000 loyal Americans of Los Angeles County give unanimous endorsement to your determined stand concerning foreign relations during the past week for justice, freedom and mercy."

No Time Lost

Preliminaries were fittingly brief when the dinner had been disposed of. President Ham of the Board of Trade extended cordial welcome on behalf of Sierra Madre and then turned the meeting over to President Evans of the association. Mr. Evans introduced as the first speaker Mr. Montaville Flowers, giving as his subject, "What is a Nation?"

Mr. Flowers delivered his address with all the vigorous effect which might be expected after twenty years of platform work as a dramatic reader and lecturer. His address was a boiled down version of a lecture he has been delivering on chautauqua and lecture courses throughout the east during the past year, and dealt with the problem of oriental immigration.

National Unity

Reviewing various definitions of "nation" in words of various length, Mr. Flowers picked as the simplest "a race unit in a land unit." Sketching rapidly the development of civilization, he declared these elements essential for national permanence. He confined his remarks to the race unit.

Race expansion and race development he showed to have been responsible for the great movements of humanity and the underlying cause of the great conflicts of history. In the long run, where an inferior race begins to come into a territory which is occupied by a superior race, the latter must either fight or move out. The inferior races multiply faster and tend to reduce the standard of living. Mr. Flowers denounced the "melting pot" idea as a dangerous delusion when applied to mixtures of different races—white, yellow, black or brown—in one nation.

He cited historical evidence and scientific testimony to prove that race mixtures are never successful but usually produce a result worse than the inferior of the two races involved.

The Pacific Coast

On the Pacific Coast Mr. Flowers declared the stage was being set for the greatest race conflict of history by the admission of orientals. He roundly denounced the work of the Japan Society of New York of which nine-tenths are Americans and the other tenth Japanese, and the work led by Dr. Sidney L. Gulick under employment of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ. He accused them of being financed by interested parties and deluding the country as to the real effect of their work. He cited staggering figures to show the enormous oriental population which would overwhelm this coast within a comparatively few years. He concluded with telling just what legislative program he would advise but made a vigorous appeal for a unified nation.

Flood Control

Former Senator Cogswell of El Monte was called upon to speak in behalf of the flood control bond issue, which he did with good effect. He devoted most of his time to refuting arguments in a published statement by Supervisor Woodley who opposes the bonds.

The Entertainers

All of the entertainers deserve more elaborate mention than space permits. Those who contributed to the enjoyment of the evening were the trio consisting of Mms. LeVeaux, Hawxhurst, and Hawks, with Mrs. Flather at the piano, Miss Vera Hartman, whistling and playing her own accompaniment, Miss Helen Williams in readings, Mr. George P. Hopkins in piano solos, and Miss Gretchen Elsner in costume songs. All were enthusiastically applauded and encored. The applause was particularly vociferous at the singing of a patriotic medley including the "Star Spangled Banner" by Miss Elsner, who is accustomed to seeing on the walls of her home portraits of several relatives wearing the German uniforms and decorated with the Iron Cross.

GREAT VARIETY IN THE NEW CARS

Among recent novelties in motor vehicle design and construction added to motor owners in Sierra Madre and which perhaps has caused most interest to spectators and envy among the smaller boys and some older persons is the Smith Motor Wheel Buckboard owned by Throwbridge Sebree a grandson of Howard Sebree. The motor power is the same equipment that is attached to bicycles, but may be raised from contact with the ground for starting and clutch purposes. It will carry two people and is capable of doing well over thirty miles an hour.

Last week Mrs. H. W. Topping received a seven passenger Pierce-Arrow and her son, E. Dennis Topping, is driving a beautiful Stutz roadster which he purchased this week.

LINNETS ARE NOT PROTECTED BY LAWScope of California Game Law as Applied to the Common
Birds

In commenting on a complaint regarding the killing of mockingbirds and linnets by Sierra Madre boys recently, the News said "mockingbirds are protected by State law, and perhaps linnets." The statement was made for lack of opportunity at the time to consult the law or any authority as to the exact fact.

The doubt in regard to the protection of linnets is confirmed by a letter from E. L. Hedderly, representing the California Fish Game Commission. He says the birds not protected by the California law are the English or European house sparrow, butcherbird, blue jay and house finch commonly known as the California linnets, besides various hawks and owls not commonly found.

PLANS CONSIDEREDSubstitute for Flower Show is Plan of Interested
Workers

A Spring Festival some time after Easter is being planned by the Woman's Club to take the place of the usual spring Flower Fete held in the past.

The idea of many who have discussed the possibilities of a flower show is that a festival in which the community is a part in the enjoyment of an entertainment and getting together in a social way without the necessary hard work an exhibit of flowers involves, would be of greater value and pleasure to all. A two day festival, with an exhibit of the real flowers of Sierra Madre, the babies, in the afternoon, either a concert or entertainment for the first evening, followed by a children's performance on the afternoon of the next day with the usual spring dance in the evening, would be somewhat the order and events of such a spring festival. Community spirit could be fostered in the common enjoyment of such an occasion. Further notice of such plans will be given as they materialize.

CLUB'S BIRTHDAY TO BE OBSERVED

Gifts Are Asked to Celebrate Ten Years of Active Work

The Woman's Club will celebrate the tenth anniversary of its founding on March 10th and a birthday celebration has been planned in which every club member is asked to take part. An appeal is made to every member to offer a birthday gift to the club of the sum of one dollar or more, to constitute a fund to lower the mortgage which falls due in the middle of March.

Wonderful work has been done in the past in paying for its club house. It has been a decided social and civic factor in bringing people together, aside from the actual work of the club. Members and friends of the club should therefore feel the privilege and duty as individuals in helping to make that factor a financially independent unit. Then it can further aid our social, intellectual, artistic and civic life.

This birthday gift will be entirely voluntary, suitable to the season in which it comes, a season of self sacrifice and thought of others. Members may bring their gifts or presents to the club on Monday.

Monday's Meeting

The club meeting for Monday under the direction of Mrs. W. S. Andrews, chairman of philanthropy, will interest many. Mrs. William Bauerhyte, the beloved "mother" of the maternity cottage of Los Angeles, will speak of its work. Also, Mrs. L. C. Torrance, one-time resident and member of the home club will be present and give a brief talk on some pet philanthropy of hers. Mrs. James Hawks, contralto, who is always heard with much pleasure, will sing.

Reciprocity Day

Instead of Reciprocity Day being on the usual club day, the fourth Monday of February, it will take place on the afternoon of February 27, thus enabling the ladies of the club to prepare on Monday, for the reception of its guests on the following Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Wright, who as chairman of Programs, has arranged a program of local talent of which we may well be proud, for the entertainment of the visitors from other clubs.

VALENTINE DANCE FRIDAY, FEB. 16

The season of love and lovers centering about St. Valentine's Day will be fittingly celebrated with a Valentine dancing party. It will be at the Club House on Friday evening, February 16th, from eight o'clock to 12 o'clock, under the auspices of the Woman's Club. The popular Fletcher orchestra will provide the music. Mrs. Frank Wright will have charge, assisted by Mmes. Seeley, Kimball and Walker. It will be for young and old. Valentine hearts will be a feature of the decorations. This will be the only pre-Lenten dance, with but one dancing party scheduled for the eve of St. Patrick's Day in March, which occurs in Lent. A large gathering of the dancing set is expected.

Mrs. Belden F. Culver and daughter Miss Agnes have gone to San Diego for an indefinite stay.

WHERE REAL PATRIOTISM SHOWS

Among the most gratifying manifestations of real patriotism during the tense days of the past week are the expressions of loyal Americanism coming from a very large section of the German-American press. Placed in the most difficult position imaginable, most of these editors show no hesitancy in indicating their allegiance. Their attitude indicates without question the attitude of their clientele. That sort of thing produces a greater thrill than the spectacle of a wealthy American munitions maker offering to give government orders precedence over all other work.

WHAT PATRIOTISM IS NOT

Every threat of war and danger to the nation arouses a patriotic fervor which shows itself in various ways. The spirit reaches the children, which is good. But it is especially important that the young should understand some things which are not patriotism. To belittle or disparage the people of another nation is not patriotism. To draw cartoons depicting the ruler of another nation hanging from a scaffold is not especially patriotic, even though the youngsters can find plenty of precedent for things of that sort in a certain type of jingo periodicals. But if parents and teachers will point out some of these distinctions to the youngsters, perhaps the next generation will not have such a keen appetite for sensational newspapers.

HENRY FORD'S GENUINE PATRIOTISM

When Henry Ford charged the preparedness movement with being financed by munitions makers with motives of profit rather than patriotism, he was called a traitor and a milk and water coward. But when a real menace appeared he was among the first of the great manufacturers to place his plant and his services at the disposal of the government. And he was the only one to volunteer to do that without profit to himself. Some people thought all the time that Mr. Ford knew more about patriotism than all his critics put together.

READY WHEN NECESSARY

Difficulty encountered everywhere in recruiting militia companies to ordinary peace strength shows how foreign to the normal American spirit is the military passion. It also indicates to what extent last summer's preparedness parades were artificially stimulated expressions of popular sentiment. But the almost unanimous determination to back the president at any cost which has developed within the last week shows better than a thousand preparedness parades the real spirit of the American people.

CHANGING THE CLOCK BY LAW

Editor-Legislator Crombie Allen of Ontario introduced Bill No. 1 at the recent session, providing for setting all the clocks forward one hour. He would use the simple expedient of making what is known as "Mountain Time" the standard in the state of California. Let these "daylight savers" set their own alarms an hour ahead if they want to get up earlier. But their proposed law would not hurry the sun a bit, nor would most people change their habits any more readily than the sun.

MEETING IT SQUARELY

When such a body as the Associated Chambers of Commerce is to be addressed by a professional propagandist, it is only fair to the assemblage that both sides of the issue be presented at the same time. Mr. Flowers' speech of Tuesday night was entertaining, stimulative of thought, and might even be called convincing. But the standing and evident sincerity of many of the men whose pro-Japanese activities he denounced entitles their side of the question to a hearing. When Mr. Flowers told of the money backing their organizations, some were led to wonder who is financing the anti-Japanese activities. Some of the more thoughtful of those present would have been better satisfied had provision been made for discussion of the other side of the issue by some competent speaker. That would be a better policy for an organization which seeks only the general good without prejudice or passion.

STOP THE REAL TROUBLE

All the investigation of alleged leaks at Washington has not shown where anyone suffered but one pack of gamblers engaged in fleecing another pack of the same kind. Why worry about stopping leaks? Why not just stop the gamblers, then the leaks would not matter.

IN SIMPLE TERMS

No dictum of law or common sense will bind a man to carry out a promise made under compulsion, except it be to fulfill a legal obligation previously incurred. He would feel free to break the promise whenever he got out of reach of the compelling power. For the same reason no nation will feel bound to carry out the terms of a treaty exacted by force. The sense of obligation will cease whenever that nation feels it has regained the physical strength to back up a repudiation. That is why a "peace without victory" is the only peace which gives any promise of lasting.

BACK TO FIRST PRINCIPLES

Reading and re-reading the diplomatic utterances of the various belligerent governments, takes us back to the boyhood days when arguments usually simmered down to "You're another."

THERE'S A PRECEDENT

San Bernardino Sun—We might join the chorus of criticism headed by navy people who very much disapprove the action of President Wilson in jumping Dr. Cary Grayson 114 points ahead of his rank and giving him the rear-admiral rank, but when we remember about President Roosevelt's discovery in Dr. Leonard Wood, and the wave of indignation that was started by army officers at that time, we hold our peace. It may be bad, as a system, but it does get good men now and then. Dr. Grayson has been a very popular white house physician, the friend of two presidents, and if one of them wishes to exercise his prerogative and give him an unusual and perhaps unexpected promotion, we rally cannot find a good reason to vote against confirmation. General Wood made good.

ACTIVE WORK

thorough organization for possible needs.

ELLIOTT WADSWORTH,
Acting Chairman.

Meeting on Saturday

Under this call, a meeting of the executive committee has been arranged for Saturday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. M. D. Welscher. A full attendance is desired.

Wit han outlay of $24 for material, chapter members are working with renewed activity. Ladies are reminded that work to be finished at home may be secured on Tuesday afternoon at the chapter rooms. All articles and material gathered by the chapter now are held for possible use by our own country.

Cooked Food Sale

For the purpose of replenishing the treasury for needed work a cooked food sale will be held on the day of the flood control bond election. It will be in the Red Cross headquarters just across the street from the polling place on Baldwin Avenue. Housewives can make up the time required to vote by stepping over there and buying something for dinner. Mrs. Louis Dietz will have charge.

At a recent mass meeting the Pasadena chapter received donations amounting to $8,000. The Sierra Madre chapter wishes to uphold its reputation as a live factor in Red Cross work by accomplishing everything possible in the present and possible future emergencies.

Membership Growing

The membership is nearing the 200 mark. Recent additions to the roll are Miss M. W. Linebaugh, Mr. Fred Schwartz and Miss Avis Preston.

Mr. John L. Climer of San Francisco, head of the Pacific Coast division, is expected to visit and address the Sierra Madre chapter soon. On account of the many demands on his time no date has been set. Consequently members may expect a hurry call for a session where they will enjoy the unusual privilege of listening to one of the big men of the Red Cross organization.

BIC SCORES MADE ON LOCAL RANGE

Local trap fans were afforded splendid shooting conditions at the local gun club's range on North Baldwin Avenue last Sunday morning. The clear weather called out a good crowd of spectators and shooters. Carter made the best single score with 25 birds straight. The other scores which rank very high for amateur shooters are as follows:

	Score	Possible
Carter	92	100
Pool	91	100
Earl Topping	69	100
Palmer	84	100
Phillips	69	75
Roy Banks	45	50

"TARA GWIN" THE NATIONAL NON-ALCOHOLIC WINE

Is the only unfermented wine that meets the demand of the physical economy for a true stimulant. The large percentage of carbohydrate present in TARA GWIN is regulated to meet the demand of the myocardium and to re-establish and maintain the level of the sugar content of the blood. The nutritive and reconstructive effect coupled with its true stimulating property and action upon the overtaxed and impaired heart-musculature make this unfermented wine the standard national table drink and stimulant for social functions, and of the greatest possible benefit to both the young and aged.

TARA GWIN is prepared from the chemically pure extracts of the grape and other fruits. It is a concentrated brain and nerve food and tissue builder; it enriches the blood, regulates the circulation and is the best known preventive against tuberculosis, imparting great resisting power against this and other diseases. Tara Gwin is free from ingredients of a harmful or injurious nature, and may be safely taken by children of tender years, by the delicate student; it is particularly valuable to delicate young people and also to nursing mothers.

Tara Gwin is not a medicine, but a family non-alcoholic wine for the table and general use. Tara Gwin is recommended and prescribed by many leading physicians in the place of the false stimulants.

Tara Gwin may be ordered through your grocer or druggist, or directly from the NATIONAL NON-ALCOHOLIC WINES, LTD., Mt. Tara Springs, Sierra Madre, California.
